

Winged Keel Group Introduces Benjamin Deane as Newest Hire and Announces New Boston Office Location

NEW YORK, NY, FEBRUARY 27, 2019—Winged Keel Group (“Winged Keel”) today introduced Benjamin Deane as its newest Director, joining the firm’s Boston office. This exciting development coincides with announcing the firm’s new Boston office address, located at 197 First Avenue in Needham, Massachusetts. The Boston office, opened in late 2018, is led by Principal Michael A. Mingoelli, Jr., JD and Director Kenneth J. Masters, CFA®, CLU®, ChFC®, AEP®.

Ben, who worked with Winged Keel as a Client Relationship Associate from 2005 – 2009, rejoins the firm with more than 15 years of experience in the structuring and administration of insurance solutions aimed at helping ultra-affluent families achieve their wealth accumulation, wealth transfer, and charitable planning goals. He will be responsible for supporting the firm’s business development and relationship management in the New England region, working closely with Boston-based Principal Michael Mingoelli, Jr. and fellow Director Ken Masters.

Winged Keel Principal Michael Mingoelli, Jr. commented: “This expansion is a part of something very special. Opening Winged Keel’s Boston office has been an energizing step for Ken and me over the last several months. Welcoming Ben—an accomplished professional, well versed in the unique planning needs of ultra-affluent clients—is a natural next step for the growth of the Boston office and the entire Winged Keel team. We’re very excited to welcome him onboard.”

Ben added: “Winged Keel has an established reputation for being focused on delivering superior services to its client and advisor base. I look forward to helping establish the firm’s Boston presence, and, with the support of Winged Keel’s robust infrastructure, continuing to grow and differentiate the services we provide.”
